

The City of New Buffalo, Michigan is hiring Surf Rescue Lifeguards for the 2020 summer season.

- Get paid more than minimum wage
- Have your training paid for
- Learn lifesaving skills for a surf environment
- Protect and serve the beach going public
- Work with a fun group of people and get paid to stay fit
- Full and part time positions are available (all are seasonal)

- Requirements
 - able to swim 200 yards in open water
 - Sprint 200 yards on land
 - understand all the hazards potential and present on the beach
 - be able to spot a person in distress, be able to follow instructions from the head lifeguard
 - be able to distinguish dangerous actions from non-dangerous actions, be polite to and work with beach patrons, boaters, the police beach patrol as well as businesses operating at the beach
 - help create a safe and pleasant environment
 - must wear a uniform provided by the City of New Buffalo
 - understand laws pertaining to the beach to obey them and operate within the laws
 - able to lift and carry 50 lbs repeatedly
 - pass a pre-employment drug test

- Desired
 - Lifeguard certification from Red Cross, YMCA, or Star Guard
 - open water lifeguard certification
 - experience with surfboard or rescue board
 - CPR/ AED certification
 - swim 500 yards in less than 10 minutes
 - run one mile in less than 8 minutes
 - medical knowledge

- The City of New Buffalo will pay for training/certifications, if needed.

Send resume or questions to parcs@cityofnewbuffalo.org